Why should you consider sponsorship?

IABH is hosting a day-long seminar on parity practice in the Chicago suburbs and in Springfield. We anticipate more than 100 attendees at these trainings. The majority of the attendees are C-suite leaders in addiction and mental health provider agencies, as well as administrative and clinical staff. These trainings will provide you a low-cost opportunity to showcase your organization, products, services and programs to addiction and mental health professionals from throughout Illinois. You will also be recognized for supporting the Illinois Association for Behavioral Health and its members.
